Current Local Events of the Day Briefly Told.

Sifts of Facts and Gossip Gathered on the Streets by Times Reporters—Points Political, Social and General Happening Yesterday.

Festival Continued

The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Brethren Church will continue their festival to-night in Boone's old stand, corner Campbell and Jefferson streets.

Pay Day at the Offices.

Yesterday being pay day at the Norfolk and Western general offices, the First National Bank was kept busy paying off the checks of the various employees.

Mr. Wilson Returns.

E. A. Wilson, the government building contractor, returned to the city last night on the vestibule train after nearly a two week's absence. Mr. Wilson says that the building will be pushed rapidly to completion, and the contracts will be carried out.

Runaway on John Street.

Rev. W. W. Hamilton, of Vinton, while visiting on John street yesterday, left his horse and vehicle in the street, when the horse became frightened and run away, demolishing the buggy, and at last accounts the runaway horse had not been captured.

I. O. G. T. Meets.

The recently-organized Lodge of Good Templars will meet to-night at the residence of J. M. Bennett, at 614 Sixth avenue s. w., for the purpose of completing the organization and perfecting arrangements for a hall. All charter members are requested to attend.

Will Return to Roanoke.

Mr. J. H. Bower, of the Central Manufacturing Company, and formerly a resident of the city, who has been here for several days on business, returned to his home at Lowry, Bedford county, yesterday. Mr. Bower says he will come back to Roanoke to reside in the near future.

Prof. Leo Wheat Here.

Prof. Leo Wheat, well known in Roanoke, passed through the city yesterday en route to Salem, where he filled one of his concert engagements last night. The professor will spend to-day with friends in the city. He is now traveling on his summer concert tour, which so far has been very successful.

The Drys Lose Radford.

Samuel H. Hoge returned last night from Radford, where he was engaged as counsel for the "dry" in the local option election case, which was being contested by the "wets." The court decided that the election was void. It is believed that the Prohibition people will call for another election immediately after the November election.

Belmont Festival.

The Epworth League of the Belmont M. E. Church will give a festival and lawn party in Woodland Park to-night and to-morrow night. Refreshments will be served and the public is cordially invited to attend. The proceeds go for the benefit of the Belmont Church and will be used for purchasing seats for the building.

Boys Arrested Yesterday.

A crowd of boys were playing ball on the vacant lot between Commerce street and Sanderson's stable yesterday, when complaint was made to the police. About six half grown boys were arrested, the others making their escape. They were notified by Chief Dyer to appear before Judge Williams in the morning and were dismissed.

Arrested in Danville.

City Sergeant Tillett received a letter yesterday morning from Sergeant P. H. Boisseau, of Danville, saying Annie Lipard had been arrested in that city on a capias issued from the Hustings Court of this city for fines imposed and not paid and that she was being held subject to his orders. Mr. Tillett left yesterday afternoon for Danville and will bring the prisoner to Roanoke.

A Probable Call.

Dr. Len G. Broughton, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, is in Baltimore conferring in regard to a probable call to fill the pulpit of the Lee Street Baptist Church of that city, made vacant by the resignation of Rev. E. Y. Mullens, who has been recently elected secretary of the foreign mission board by the Southern Baptist Convention at Richmond.

G. A. R. Men Here.

Messrs. M. L. Barnes, Edward H. Wade, Dr. Thomas Gillilan, C. H. Heald and G. Stearns, Grand Army men from Northampton, Mass., stopped over in the city for a day or two on their return from the grand encampment at Chattanooga. They visited our courts yesterday and other places of interest in the city, and expressed themselves as well pleased with the Magic City. They left for their homes yesterday afternoon.

Entertainment To-night.

The entertainment given last week by the little folks of the First Baptist Sunday-school was so successful that it will be repeated to-night in the chapel of the church. The cheapness and uniqueness of the entertainment drew an overflowing house last week. So those who pay at the door or who hold unused tickets of the last rendition will have them recognized to-night.

The Hebrew New Year.

To-day being Hebrew New Year all the stores and places of business run by the Jews are closed, and will remain so until 6 p. m. The celebration of the day began at 6 p. m. yesterday, and the regular devotional exercises of the Hebrew Church on the closing of the old year were observed by them in their synagogue on Campbell avenue last night. Ten days after their New Year comes the day of atonement, which will be observed with greater devotion even than their New Year.

Inspection of Militia.

Col. Joe Lane Sterne, of Richmond, who arrived in the city yesterday, went to Salem late in the afternoon, where he inspected the Jeff Davis Rifles. He then returned to the city and inspected the military companies here. The Roanoke Light Infantry was under command of Capt. B. P. Hatcher with thirty-one men. Owing to the fact that Captain Perkins was suffering from a lame leg, Lieutenant Frank Taylor took charge of the Roanoke Machine Works Guards with the same number of men.

The International Athletic Contest.

H. P. Kirk, traveling auditor of the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company, left by last night's train for New York, to witness the international athletic contest between the New York Athletic Club and the London Athletic Club on the 21st inst. Mr. Kirk has been a long distance runner and all-around athlete and is acquainted with several of the gentlemen competing from England. One of the events will be a five-mile foot race, a distance rarely run in this country. His observations therefore of it and the numerous other races in this great contest will be very interesting.

In the Courts.

Only a few chancery cases were disposed of yesterday in Judge Wood's court. In the circuit court the instructions to the jury in the Morrison case vs. the Street Railway Company were partially argued, and the jury was adjourned over until to-morrow. This action on the part of Judge Dupuy was caused by a report coming from the jury that someone had been prompting witnesses while on the stand. The court afterwards issued a rule against this party to appear on to-morrow for investigation of the charges, which was served by an officer yesterday afternoon. The investigation may result in the dismissal of the present jury and the calling of an entirely new one to try the case. If so, counsel for the plaintiff will move that the case be tried at this term of the court. The party accused of prompting witnesses emphatically denies the charges, and his friends refuse to believe them.

Roanoke Baseball Notes.

A well-attended meeting of the stockholders of the Roanoke Baseball Association took place in the office of Smith & King at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The main question considered, viz: "Whether Roanoke will enter the league next season or not," was not definitely decided upon. Owing to the fact that a large amount of money was lost this season, a number of the stockholders refuse to put up more money for next year, and unless outside assistance can be obtained, it is quite likely that Danville will take Roanoke's place in the league. A committee of five was appointed to canvass the city and ascertain what aid can be secured from lovers of the game and business men, and will report to an adjourned meeting, to be held at the same place on the afternoon of October 5, when the question will be definitely decided. The State League managers will meet in Richmond on October 11, and will decide which teams will remain in the circuit.

In the Police Court.

A long and tedious docket faced His Honor Judge Williams yesterday morning. The company of Brazilians, arrested for begging and intimidating the women of the northeast section of the city, were dismissed on the promise that they would get out of town immediately. Jack Lanier was sent on to the grand jury for stealing a barrel of flour from Catagni Bros. Taylor Mills, a countryman, was fined $10 for disorderly conduct and recognized in the sum of $250 to answer any indictment which the grand jury might find against him for attempting an assault with a knife. E. F. Woody and Sam Leo, charged with fighting, dismissed. Sallie Shelton paid $2.50 for keeping a disorderly house, and was immediately arrested and looked up on a capias from the Hustings Court for State fines imposed and unpaid. Rose Turner was assessed $5 for the same offence. C. M. Runyon, charged with forging a check on B. F. Allen & Co., was sent on to the grand jury. He was afterwards bailed in the sum of $800, his father, C. C. Runyon, becoming his surety. Mr. Runyon seems to be much worried over the trouble into which his son has gotten. The total amount of fines paid in was $17.50.

THE CITY ASSESSMENT.

The Work Which Began in January Completed Yesterday.

Capt. Talcy J. Mitchell, State assessor for the city, and Mr. G. L. Stevens, his assistant, have completed the assessment of real estate in this city and sent the returns to the State auditor, from which they kindly furnished THE TIMES the following figures:

According to the old assessment of 1891, the valuation of real estate in the city was $8,412,046, while the new assessment is $6,785,731, showing a decrease of $1,626,315, or a falling off of about 20 per cent. Much of this decrease is due to the shrinkage of values in suburban lots, which in 1890 were valued at from $150 to $300 per lot, while the same land is now only valued at from $75 to $200 per acre.

When it is remembered that the assessment of 1891 was made under great difficulties, and when values of all properties were much inflated, it will be seen that these gentlemen have spared neither time nor trouble to arrive at a fair estimate of the present values of real estate in the city.

It is also believed that had these values been taken in 1893, instead of 1891, as was the case, they would not have amounted to as much as the valuation of the assessment just completed. The present assessment also shows that the decrease in values has been much less in the business portions of the city.

The work of the assessors has been thorough and complete and gives general satisfaction. The books have been kept open in all the stages of their work for inspection and corrections and they have received substantial assistance from the city engineer and clerk of the courts and his deputy, Mr. Bryant.

The assessors have been courteous and accommodating at all times, and it is believed the result of their work in the increased facilities furnished for collecting taxes, will result in an actual increase of revenue.

IMPORTANT RELIGIOUS QUESTIONS.

Some of the Subjects Selected by Dr. Campbell.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Campbell announced to the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church last night that on Sunday night next he would begin a series of sermons on various questions that are of interest to many persons, and whose discussion may be edifying. Some of these questions are of deepest interest, and are freely discussed, not only in assemblies met for that purpose, but by Christian men and women, and by others who, making no profession of faith, are still deeply interested. Some of these questions are: "Can one become certain in this life of his eternal salvation?" "Is the Bible historically true?" "Is the Bible scientifically true?" "Is a man justified by his works?" "Is sanctification perfect in this life?" "What is the ground of man's election?" "Did David write all the Psalms?" "What are our sources of information about God?" "What do the first eleven verses of the sixth chapter of Hebrews mean?" "Why do we baptize little children?" "What is the historic origin of the Old Testament?" "What is the historic origin of the New Testament?" "What is the historic origin of the English Bible?" These are some of the questions it is proposed to ask and answer.

TURNING GRAY AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS

The Danger is Averted by Using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Neb.
